Gratitude in Troubled Times

(adapted from Chaplain K. McCauley)

We certainly speak often about the importance of gratitude. And yet, so often social distress might hinder our ability to feel grateful. Knowing that societal discord is a common occurrence in history, let us turn our attention to the holy people of history to help show us the way of hope and grace. We see with D. Bonhoeffer in concentration camps of WWII, M. Gandhi in British rule & oppression, N. Mandela in South African apartheid and MLK Jr's work for civil rights in the United States, that God's grace can be found in unrest. The gratitude we have at these times, comes from knowing that God is with us. The Divine Presence is with us, even if at times we might have to look harder, forgive more or abandon our judgement to keep our awareness of this Presence alive and well. But at the end of each day our gratitude will be that we know who we are in the eyes of God and that God walks with us always.
